

Joseph Frederic

UL, LLC

Joseph Frederic is a UL Principal Engineer for lighting products. He oversees standards and technical decisions for several lighting product categories including electric signs, temporary lighting strings, lampholders and nightlights. Joseph also represents UL on several industry committees and has served both as member and chair. He has 18 years of product safety engineering experience and holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Electrical Engineering from the City College of New York (CCNY).

